SPRINGFIELD, N. J.

Oh, the moon and stars have gone and I can see the light of dawn like a golden smile
Brightening up the brand new day.

"Sunrise" — Eric Carmen

Only a night from old to new
Only a sleep from night to morn
The new is but the old come true
Each sunrise sees a new year born.

Heien Hunt Jackson

... so on and on I go the seconds tick the time out, there's so much left to know,
and I'm on the road to find out.

Cat Stevens

Each new day is a journey of joy
as our separate paths
merge
on the horizon of time

For Yesterday is but a Dream,
and To-morrow is only a Vision;
But To-day well-lived makes every Yesterday a Dream of Happiness
And every To-morrow a Vision of Hope.

What appears to be the end, may really be a new beginning.

SENIORS pg. 113

What the school strives to instill in its students is the ability to deal with the world in a mature way. The purpose of this book is to portray the way in which Jonathan Dayton does this.

CURRICULUM

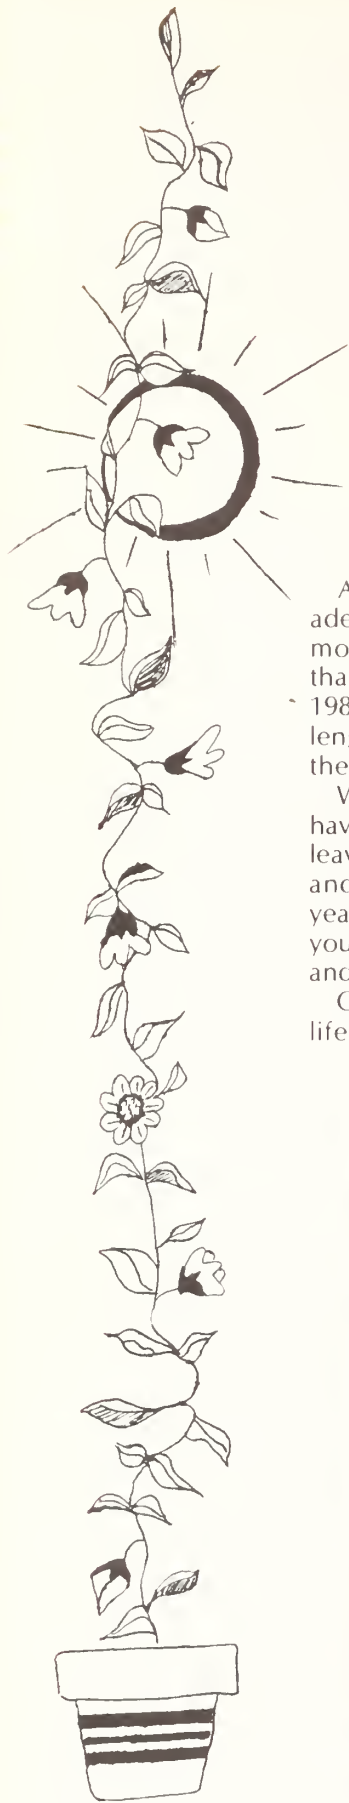

Eric Sheth asks Wayne Mayer, "Did you see what I saw!!!"

Ivan Baron exclaims, "Annie, you need more!!!"

Trials and Tribulations — guidance and achievements . . .
This is what we go through each and every day. We arrive and somehow get through it, week after week, month after month. We formulate some kind of a hypothesis which each day has a proof to be solved in a different way.

As our country begins a new decade in a world of uncertainty and turmoil, we at Dayton feel confident that you, the members of the class of 1980, are ready to meet the challenges which face you as you enter the adult world.

We feel justly proud of what you have done here and what you are leaving behind for others to develop and model themselves after. These years have been enjoyable ones for you but they have also been a basis and preparation for what is to come.

Our best wishes go with you for a life filled with happiness and success.

The English Department emphasizes composition, comprehension, and vocabulary. Each course requires specific materials to prepare students in those skills which are necessary in today's literate world.

Students are given the opportunity to choose from a variety of elective courses. These semesterized courses encompass such topics as Mystery and Adventure, Contemporary Literature, World Literature, and an assortment of basic skill courses. In addition to the specific topics in each course, all English courses include departmental skill requirements.

Today Is Tomorrow's History.

Frederick Jackson Turner once said, "The aim of history is to know the present by understanding what came into the present from the past." Through dedicating themselves to orienting students with the heroes, trends, events and influences of their pasts, the history teachers have helped them to gain a new perspective and understanding of their own lives today. As the forerunners of a new decade, this understanding will serve us in our efforts to shape a new and brighter tomorrow.

The Mathematics Department offers a myriad of courses ranging from Basic Math to Advanced Placement Calculus. 82% of the student body is scheduled through these courses per year.

Besides offering the courses in functional mathematic skills, the department provides advanced courses for students who desire to continue their studies in the field. These courses, including Statistics and Computer Science on a first and second year level, expose students to the skills required in an increasingly technological world.

In addition to the scheduled academic courses, the department gives students the opportunity to test their skills on both a state and national level. This competition is based on grade level and aptitude. Our previous record has testified to the accomplishment of the Math Department.

The Foreign Language Department is continuing to aspire to high goals of giving students an exceptionally well-rounded language experience. Oral communication is stressed more strongly than in the past to provide more interesting and challenging programs for the students. This includes audio-visual materials, phonetic practice and increased discussion of everyday situations which confront students. In addition, the program is further enhanced by the use of various texts, teacher-initiated trips, and greater exposure to the different cultures. These innovative changes have led to a more practical and stimulating Foreign Language curriculum.

Dr. Jekyl, alias Stephen McGuire, plays with his junior chemistry kit.

"Our basic philosophy is to take secondary school students and make them scientifically literate," says Mr. George Barclay, coordinator of the Science Department. A scientifically literate student is one who knows the basics in the science world, has background in a wide range of scientific areas, and can benefit from this information in the future.

The Science Department teaches Science on four steps. The first step is a ninth grade Earth Science course. In this class, students learn about the planet, the weather system and astronomy. The second step acquaints the students with the variety of organisms on our planet. This includes anatomical and physiological studies of plants and animals. On the third step, Chemistry classes study the chemical nature of things. Finally, the last step is Physics. In physics, students investigate the physical concepts of objects.

Aside from these four major courses, Dayton endeavors to keep students interested in science by offering many elective courses. Some of these courses are: Environmental Science, Technology and Man. Botany, Physical Anthropology.

For the science-oriented student, there are courses in topics in Biology, Chemistry and Physics that allow the students to probe deeper into these areas.

As one can see the Science Department offers a wide variety of courses to the student. This coupled with the enthusiastic faculty is responsible for our large percentage of "Scientifically literate" students.

The Industrial Education and Home Economics Department is constantly growing. A general program is offered in all areas with the opportunity to specialize in up to four years in an area of particular interest.

As a part of the Department a cooperative Industrial Education program exists where students attend school for a half-day and are employed as student-learners in their chosen fields for the remainder of the afternoon. The programs offered are Drafting, Cabinet Making, and Printing.

The Home Economics program offers many chances for in-depth study. Basic courses such as Foods, Clothing, and Needlecraft can be further continued with advanced learning. Personal and Family Living is offered to juniors and seniors. This most valuable course prepares students for future family and career life.

The Department is perpetually updating curriculum and replacing machinery and appliances with new improved equipment. In addition, both facets of the department have maintained or increased enrollments.

MR. STANLEY GROSSMAN
Coordinator of Home Economics and Industrial Arts

The Business Education program gives students new knowledge and stimulates their interest in a business career. This year three new courses were introduced to the department.

For those students intending to continue study in business administration, Concepts and Principles of Accounting provides college level material. Business Management is a new course which is also designed for those students.

Two new classes were instituted for the lower classmen. Exploring the Business World gives the student familiarity with various professions, and Business Math deals with the mathematics which are necessary in any business such as payroll, interest and discounting.

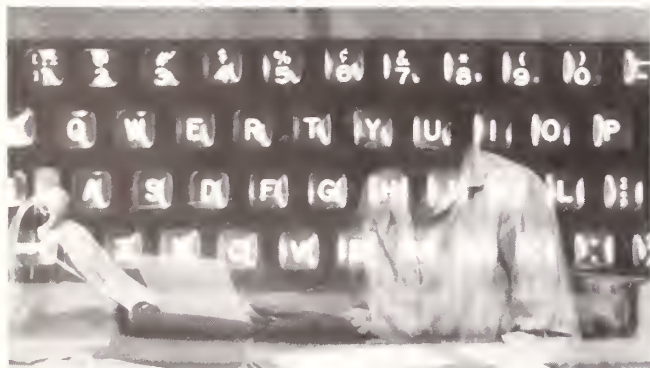

Typing and Stenography are two classes which can be an asset to both the business oriented and college minded student. They are able to learn using updated facilities including correcting machines and memory typewriters which can reproduce over one hundred words a minute. In Stenography, students are taught useful communication skills using the Gregg Shorthand Method. The Business Education Department offers a wide variety of courses which can benefit the college minded students as well as those oriented towards business fields.

A Noted Exhibition of Talents

The Cultural Arts Department is a combination of Vocal Music, Instrumental Music, and Art. These divisions provide the students with an opportunity to develop their talents on various levels.

The Art Department allows students of all calibers to develop their skills in a diversity of artistic areas. Foundations in Studio Art is the basic course which all prospective art students are required to take. The next stage of art courses is comprised of three more complex classes; Drawing and Painting, Commercial Art, and Open Studio. These classes are available for all students who wish to further their artistic endeavors.

The Music Department offers a number of options. Instrumental music lessons are given for beginners, where they are taught how to play their instruments and also given a chance to improve before trying out for the band. Music Theory is a course offered where the objective is to teach the fundamentals of music and how to work with them. There are three vocal music courses available. Vocal Workshop is for Freshmen, where they are taught the choral blend and how to use their voices. Concert Choir is for the remaining three grades and they are taught more advanced techniques and music history. Lastly, there is Chorale, which is strictly a performing group.

The "Drive" to Keep Fit . . .

The Physical Education Department is established to better the physical skills and coordination of the student. The department offers a variety of sports and the student can choose to take the class he or she prefers. If a student is outstanding in a particular sport he or she may be selected to play on Varsity Sports. 31½% of the student body play on Varsity or J.V. Sports. These teams are coached by gym teachers as well as faculty members of other subjects. Being on a team as such, requires a lot of time and practice on the part of the students as well as enthusiasm and school spirit.

The Physical Education Department also teaches a diverse number of health courses. These courses are taught according to grade. The student will acquire a knowledge of first aid, drugs and alcohol, psychology, and human relationships. The school also offers "Behind The Wheel" to give the students practice in driving.

"Of course I practice," says Steve Dittman, "Why do you think they call me Robin!"

CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES

Steve Novich "Get a load of this, Danny Domaratsky has me down for a dozen yearbooks!"

The Clubs and activities which the school offers are designed to allow the students to pursue their individual interests outside the regular school curriculum. The involvement in these specific areas includes attending after school meetings, Saturday morning practices, candy sales and many other activities which require extra effort of the students. These activities often help the students to acquire greater knowledge in a specific field, and to achieve a better understanding of their own interests.

The Dayton Journal puts out another edition, while Ellen Weinstein looks for a headline.

The Student Council demonstrated high hopes of great accomplishments this school year. A greater spirit of getting things done has been adopted and the Council stepped into the limelight of school affairs more this year than in the past. Under the guidance of their advisor, Mrs. Cusumano, the officers, Jon Siegel — President, Steve Warner — Vice-President, Todd Leonard — Treasurer, and Maria Sannino — Secretary, enthusiastically worked together. The Student Council sponsored a school dance in October, planned a winter ski trip, and proposed many other innovative activities for this year.

The Key Club

The Key Club, in cooperation with the Kiwanis Club, was representative of a most actively functioning organization within the school and community. One success was the club's designation as the town's official solid waste management agent. Other activities throughout the year included historical restoration work, one on one correspondence with the senior citizens, interclub football and basketball games, benefits to the Mountainside Children's Hospital, Multiple Sclerosis project and Leukemia fund collection, through sponsored races. The club's greatest achievement according to President James Craner was "becoming known, respected, and an integral part of the school and community." Other officers include Vice-president David Grossman, Secretary Ellen Weinstein, and Treasurer Glenn Bardack. The club advisors are Miss Linda Duke, Mr. Ronald Nash, and Mr. David C. Van Hart.

Trish Taylor graciously accepts her honor.

The National Honor Society is an organization that is established to especially honor those students who have demonstrated outstanding ability throughout high school. The qualifications for this society require the students to have at least a 3.5 grade point average in his junior year and at least a 3.0 grade point average as a senior. The society also bases its standards on the student's leadership, character, scholarship, and service to others. Those who are members of the society have contributed great efforts to the school. The officers are Adrienne Positan — President, Charles Eick — Vice-President, Penny Levitt — Secretary, and Jim Craner — Treasurer. The club advisor is Mrs. Una Mellon.

Regionologue 1980

The 1980 yearbook's preparation began early in the spring of 1979. Staff members made many decisions concerning the overall theme and design before leaving for summer vacation. This year the book's objective was to encompass a greater view of school events, to include as many seniors as possible, and to expand the coverage of the underclassmen.

Special thanks are in order to Mrs. Barbara Hedges, Mr. Greg Costich, Mr. Ken Bernhard, the yearbook class, and all those who contributed to the publication of a successful yearbook.

Many thanks are offered to Mrs. Julia Latzer, this year's editor-in-chief Marcy Levinson, the editors, and those people on the staff that came through with their assignments every issue.

French Club

The French Club kept involved throughout the school year in various activities. Early in the year the club attended a concert in New York City, given by Jacques Yvart, a Canadian folk singer.

Following the concert the club dined at La Cigogne, a French restaurant in Westfield. A second trip involved members of the French National Honor Society and those advanced French students in the club who went to see a French movie. During Christmas, the club sponsored a dinner of various French delicacies after which club members participated in singing French carols and games. In the spring the club sponsored a dinner and members participated in the French Olympics. A successful candy sale was held whereby the profits served for a S.H.F. scholarship to a deserving graduating French student. Officers of the club include president, Julie Wildman, vice-president Maria Zotti and club advisor Miss Carol Fahrman.

German Club

First Row: Sandy Gunzy, Eric Sheth, Helle-May Ebrok. Second Row: Debbie Bear, Mark Herrmann, Jeff Droad, Jack Mendell, Lisa Spear, Detlef Hoffman, Barbara Herrmann.

The German Club of Jonathan Dayton is involved in a great number of activities. They had several fund-raising activities including a candy sale, a button sale and a calendar sale. They went to the Garden State Art Center to which they donated many of their profits. As every year, the German Club held an Oktoberfest. This year they went to a German restaurant in Warren, N.J. called Schwaebische Alb. It was great entertainment for all of those who attended. The club officers are President — Eric Sheth, Vice President — Carole Krajaik, Secretary — Helle-May Brok and Treasurer — Sandy Goense. Advisor — Barbara Oberding.

Hebrew Club

The general concern of the Hebrew Club is to raise money for Israel. In order to achieve this goal, the club conducted a candy sale and planted trees there, keeping Israel's welfare in mind. In addition to fund raisers for Israel, they organized outside trips to museums of Jewish heritage, schools, and a fashion show on the Lower East Side of New York. The officers of the Hebrew Club are: President Jill Katowitz, Vice President Jeffrey Cohen, Secretary Debbie Olarsch, and Treasurer Ellin Baumel, with Advisor Mrs. S. Eckman.

The Italian Club after one year of non-existence is back again. Mrs. Murphy, Italian teacher and advisor of the club, is leading the way. With cooperation from all members the club has sponsored the first candy and carmel apple sale, a bake sale, and a Christmas party. All were extremely successful. The club hopes to engage in more activities that will generate spirit and fun!

Latin Club

The Latin Club involves itself mainly with learning about Roman culture. The major activity of the year was the Christmas — Saturnalia Party, where all the students dressed in Roman garments. The students organized this party on their own and did all of the cooking.

In addition to the party, the club held a candy sale to raise money for a trip to the State Convention, where Latin Clubs from all over New Jersey went to compete in all aspects of Latin Grammar and Roman Culture.

The officers of the Latin Club are: Laura Clarke — President, Bernard Spang — Vice-President, Jay Soled — Recording Secretary, Stephanie Clemson — Corresponding Secretary, Steven Bloch — Treasurer. Mrs. Hedges is the advisor.

German National Honor Society

Thomas Daniel, Jeff Drood, Lisa Speer, HelleMay Ebvok, Sandy Goense

The French, German, and Spanish National Honor Societies all consist of those students who greatly excel in the particular language which they are studying. To be a member of one of these organizations, a student must have at least a 3.5 average in his or her language class. In addition to excelling in the language, the student must have a 3.0 average in his other academic subjects.

The German National Honor Society conducted many activities this year. They organized a tutoring service for the German students who had difficulty in learning the language. The society had a candy sale to raise money for a dinner that the members went to at the end of the year. The club also went to New York where they saw a play. The advisor of this society was Mrs. Barbara Oberding.

The French National Honor Society had several fundraisers this year. All of the money earned was donated to scholarships for the graduating seniors. A trip to New York was also planned. The advisor was Miss Fahrman.

The Spanish National Society organized a tutoring service for assistance to the students who needed extra help in Spanish. The advisor was Mr. Farrell.

Debate Club and Sound Studio

The sound studio is a group of students who supply the audio and visual equipment for the school. They deliver the equipment to classrooms and train other students how to use the equipment. This group of students is a tremendous benefit to the school and they all worked very hard this year. In addition to their hard work the sound studio crew had to maintain their academic averages, while devoting their study periods to this work. The advisor of this service is Mrs. Ruffley.

The Debate Club is an organization for those students who have a particular interest in politics and foreign affairs. The club met once a week and at these meetings, speeches and dramatic readings were given. The speeches were evaluated and oral interpretations were made. Officers were Wayne Mayor — President and Sam Kuperstein — Vice-President.

Jazz Ensemble

The Jazz Ensemble of Dayton made a big step this year. It was the first time in five years that they competed against other schools. The competition took place at Vorhese High School. Advisor, Mr. Anderson, is hopeful that this has started a new trend for the players of jazz instruments at Dayton. The student leader was Mark Herman.

The Indoor Guard at Jonathan Dayton had a very successful year, as did the marching band. These students put in a lot of their time to this activity. They had ten competitions and were talented enough to take first place at the Governor Livingston competition. They took part in all of the fundraisers that the band organized. Vicky Stuart was the captain, and the sergeant of the Sabre line, Valerie Hendrix was sergeant of the flag line, and Barbara Hammer was Sergeant for the American section.

"Anyone want to make pretzels?" asks Cathy Clickenger and Vicki Stewart.

"Hey, Judy, look at the people over there making pretzels." exclaims Val Hendrix.

The Jonathan Dayton Marching Band achieved a very impressive record. Competition season began with a second place in the Pageant of Champions in Berkeley Heights; followed by the Cadence '79 competition in Kenilworth and the Central New Jersey Band Competition in Woodbridge where they came in first place and also captured the best band front trophy in their class. The band won first place band and first place band front in Group 1 at the Tournament of Bands Chapter V Championship in Elizabeth under the lights. As Group 1 Champions representing Chapter V, they competed in the Mid-Atlantic Coast Championship in Allentown, Pennsylvania where they placed eighth in a field of seventeen Championship bands from the other chapters.

The Marching Band also sponsored their own Tournament of Champions competition in which bands from New Jersey and New York competed. This show was made possible by the fund raisers that were held earlier in the season. Besides competition, the band also helped to inspire spirit among the fans at the football games.

On November 16, "Ten Little Indians" by Agatha Christie was performed under the direction of Mr. Trinity.

The plot revolves around ten people who are invited to a deserted island. None of the guests know each other or their hosts. One by one the guests are murdered. Each death corresponds to a verse from the nursery rhyme "Ten Little Indians." By the time the curtain falls, there have been ten murders but two of the ten guests are still alive ... try to solve that one!

Drama Club and Thespian Society

First Row: Jessica Fine, Joy Jartman, Patty Kitchell, Randy Feuerstein. Second Row: Mr. Trinity — advisor, Stuart Gelwarg, David Grossman, Marcy Levinson, Debbie Fleischer.

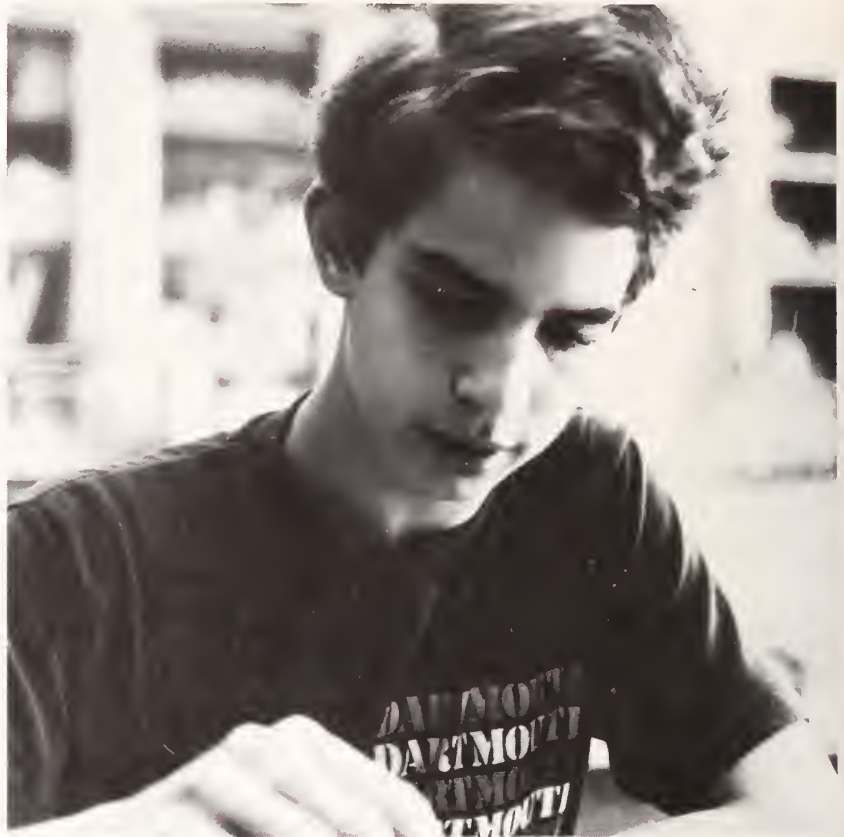

The Dayton Drama Club, advised by Mr. Joseph Trinity, gives interested students an opportunity to gain individual knowledge and skill in the practical aspects of theater. It also offers an opportunity for students to meet together to discuss areas of common interest, take trips, and participate in drama games. Active membership in the Drama Club often leads to admittance into the National Thespian Society, an organization that is made up of students who are truly involved with all aspects of theater, either on or behind stage. The club's officers are: Joy Jartman — President, Robert Schwalb — Vice President, Debbie Fleischer — Secretary, and Susan Benford — Treasurer.

Chess and Backgammon Club

The chess and backgammon club is established for those students who are particularly fond of chess and/or backgammon. The club met weekly this year so that the students could compete and compare their abilities to the abilities of others. The club also belongs to the Union County Chess League; thus the members could all compete as a team against other schools. The officers were president — Stephen Klein, Vice-President — Wayne Mayer, Treasurer — Frank Tortorella, Secretary — Michael Funk.

Dungeons and Dragons Club

The Dungeons and Dragons Club is the newest club in Dayton. The students in the club organize themselves weekly and play games which challenge the mind and force them to stretch their imagination. The game is both competitive and individualized yet it helps them to learn to route for their friends. The game includes traveling through mysterious imaginary places, and seeking out treasures while trying to escape the obstacles around them.

Chem. League

The science league is an organization that's open for those students who excell in the subjects such as Biology, Physics, or Chemistry. However, this year, as the preceding years, the club only involves the students who find their talent in the field of chemistry. The club competed against schools in Union County monthly by taking written science tests based on knowledge of Chemistry. They were successful. After the first four months, the first year chemistry team was first among the county and second best in the state. The second year team was second in the county. The advisor is Mrs. Shanahan.

The Pajama Game

Lauren Shields, Victor Gutierrez and Jenny Bradshaw.

Jonathan Dayton presented "The Pajama Game" on March 14, 15, and 16 in the school auditorium. The play is a musical comedy about the rift between management and union of an Iowa Pajama Factory over a 7½¢ raise. Sid Sorokin, the manager of the factory, falls in love with Babe Williams, the chairman of the grievance committee. This is where the romance and rocky negotiations begin.

The fall brought many ups and downs to the Dayton Football Team. Although the team remained winless there was a definite sign of improvement. Throughout the season hope was never lost, the mighty Bulldogs entered each game facing their opponents with dignity and pride. Unfortunately, the scores do not reveal the perseverance and strength that each player has as a building block for the future of Dayton Football. The three senior tri-captains were Anthony Circelli, Ken Klebous, and Robert Irene. Their leadership led the Bulldogs through a trying season. Their enthusiasm and guidance helped keep the team together and remain as one unified group with a common goal.

The second annual Homecoming dance sponsored by the fall cheerleaders was a success. The titles of Mr. Regional and Homecoming Queen were voted on and announced during the dance. The nominees for Mr. Regional were selected by the coaches based on ability and good sportsmanship. These candidates included Mark Dooley, Robert Irene, Anthony Circelli, Ken Klebous, Bill Ventura, Joe Policastro, and this year's winner Jeff Knowles. Jeff was crowned by the senior cheerleaders and presented a certificate of recognition for Mr. Regional 1979-80. The Homecoming Queen for this year was Adrienne Positan. The other candidates included Shelley Schwartz, Trish Taylor, Penny Levitt, Donna Seymour, Stephanie Cohn, and Valerie Hendrix. They were nominated based on their academic achievement, participation in school activities, and all around school spirit. Adrienne was presented a certificate and crowned by Miss Duke. The Homecoming events continued with a spirited "Blue and Orange" day, pep rally and concluded with the Thanksgiving Day game against West Orange.

Guarding the Goal

The Dayton Varsity Soccer team proved successful in tallying victories in the win column this year. Coach Joseph Cozza's team showed a great amount of playing ability and enthusiasm in their style of play.

Instrumental players on the squad were senior Scott Worswick and freshman Andy Grett in goal. Both displayed remarkable reflexes in the nets that kept out many opposing goals. Seniors Mike King, Danny Domaratsky and underclassmen Matt Gallagher and Peter Klaskin proved worthy in their defensive positions. Contributing players to the offensive part of the game were senior Marty Swanson and junior Don Meixner. Their innovative play and fancy dribbling eluded opposing defenders. Other caliber players were Steve Tennenbaum, Ed MacDonald, Kirk Yoggy and Henry Largey.

The team's biggest victory was their 2-1 win over Caldwell. At the time, Caldwell was 9-1 and rated 17th in the state. To top it all off, two players received honors for their play throughout the season. Don Meixner was chosen to the All-Conference first team and Mike King received Honorable Mention.

Suburban

For the Dayton Regional Cross-Country team the fall of 1979 was just another season to add to its long history of track excellence and dedication. The Bulldogs captured the Suburban Conference Championship for the second straight year. Also, this was their third triumph in four years. The harriers were able to take second place in the State Sectional Championship Meet.

Jeff Knowles, team captain, consistently led the harriers to victory in fourteen of their fifteen dual meets. His highlight of the season was taking a fifth place at the Conference Meet. Jay Bruder, also a team captain, was a driving force in retaining the Conference Title. Steven Wright, Adam Silverstein, and Glenn Eitz, all juniors, provided the depth necessary for victory. Steve and Adam had a particularly excellent race during the Conference Meet. Scott Connolly, a sophomore, and Jimmy Roche rounded out the top seven men. Others who contributed substantially to this year's winning team were: Ivan Baron, Jon Fingerhut, Lou Melkowitz, Louis Salemy, and Ira Tauber.

The girls' team had a winning season compiling a 7-4 dual meet record. Junior Kathy Kelly led the female harriers. She took a fifth place in the Conference Meet. Juniors Dana Levinson, Elise Oginz, Barb Taylor, and Claudine Cohen, as well as sophomore Janis Levine and senior, Lynn Maier rounded out the top seven girls. The underclassmen, especially Barb and Janis, look promising for the future.

Tennis Anyone?

The Jonathan Dayton girls' tennis team completed a successful season despite a lack of experience in match play. The team, which was composed of many young players, showed great promise for coach Ed Jasinski in the future. The presence of four year veteran and captain Kathy Gerndt inspired the girls to display determination and dedication throughout the year.

Along with a good team record many individuals were recognized for outstanding play. Kathy captured second place in the Union County First Singles Tournament and was named to the second team all-conference. Seniors Lorrie Slamowitz, Ellen Levine, and Cindy Dunayer played consistently and provided necessary leadership. Singles players, Perri Teitlebaum and Lauren Miller showed improvement with each match and will lead the team next fall. Other members contributing to the team's success were Judy Hockstein, Nina Liberi, Jill Schoenfeld, Yael Rubanenko, Linda Telsher, and Donna Vargas.

TUMBLE TO TRIUMPH

The 1979 Girl's Varsity Gymnastics team ended their season with a team record of 4-10. The team displayed great talent and ability through the course of the season which will hopefully carry them through next year. All but one of the girls, Senior Penny Levitt, will return next year, for a promising season. Penny has given the team spirit, and has added to its success since her freshman year.

Outstanding performers for the 1979 season included sophomore Paige Carter displaying fine talent in vaulting, and all around Senior Penny Levitt, captain, and junior Vicki Sarracino, co-captain, were stellar performers as well as Sue Feig and Hannah Rheimann also.

The girls will never forget this past season. Gymnastics? . . . horizontal? diagonal? vertical? . . . their dedicated coaches and faithful fans . . . lots of pointed toes, straight legs, tight bodies, pretty fingers, happy smiles, and good times.

Take It to

The 1980 Bulldog Basketball team faced the consistently strong Suburban Conference with enthusiasm and intensity. Including conference, tournament and pre-season games the squad established a record of 8 wins, 14 losses. "In the beginning of the season we were able to achieve a 500 record, hustling and playing first rate basketball," commented Head Coach Ray Yanchus. "Yet, foul shots and missed lay ups took their toll."

The most gratifying of Dayton's victories came during the County Tournament late in the season. After being beaten twice by New Providence during the conference play the team successfully shut down their opponents for 3 quarters and won their ticket to the next round of competition.

The starting five for the Bulldogs developed an atmosphere of dogged determination on the court. Adam Joseph, with a 14 game point average, displayed outstanding capabilities through out the season, while co-captain Craig Clickenger was recognized for his defensive skill. Athony Circelli maintained control and leadership on the floor both offensively and defensively. Don Meixner and Larry Walker will be returning as experienced ball players next year.

Other superlative efforts were delivered by Albert Garguilo, Kenny Klebous, Ricky Marech and co-captain Billy Ventura.

Of this year's 13 players — Circelli, Clickenger, Engelhardt, Hayes, Garguilo, Joseph, Klebous, Marech, Meixner, Steir, Toland, Ventura dna Walker — four are returning next year. The team's prospects look impressive considering the background of several veterans and the success of this year's J.V. squad.

The 1979-80 Regional Wrestling team completed its season with a record of eight wins and eight losses. The young team finished its season with six consecutive wins. The team was led by returning lettermen co-captains Ben Scatturo and Steve Tenenbaum; other lettermen were Ron Buthman, Frank Colatruglio, Vincent Cervone and George Pittenger also supported the team.

Outstanding wrestlers for the season included Steven Tenenbaum who placed first in the Governor Livingston Tournament and second in the Union County Tournament. Ben Scatturo, Frank Colatruglio and Ron Buthman all captured thirds in District XI.

Faced with a difficult schedule the young grapplers gained experience throughout the season. Formidable opponents such as Roselle Park and Belleville, Madison and Millburn were some of the challenges the team had to contend with. Next year's team will include many returning lettermen who will strive to improve the team's record.

Hey You, Up in the Stands . . .

Get it together!

The cheerleaders had a very busy winter. Everyday was filled with a basketball game, wrestling match, or squad practice. This year the cheerleaders approached a new challenge, the pyramid. Many long hours and sore bodies were spent trying to perfect something a little out of the ordinary, and they did!

However, their biggest task was to spread enthusiasm and encourage students to support the teams. There were also many activities during the winter months. These activities included "Orange and Blue Day," decorating the players' houses, painting signs for the halls and most of all spreading school spirit.

Running to Victory

The Track Team completed the season with an undefeated record of 5-0 in their dual meet competition. The success of their season was due to fine talent and sportsmanship of both the boys and the girls. The girls placed second out of 40 teams from within the state, at the Group Meet Championship held at Red Bank High School, while the boys captured fourth in their Group Meet held at Princeton University.

Top performers for the girls were sprinter Trish Taylor (Capt.) who excelled in the 60, 440, and high jump, shot putter Maria Sannino (Capt.), sprinter Laura Clarke, middle distance runners (880, 440) Kathy Kelly, Debbie Keller, and Mary Jo Scuderi, hurdler Linda Spina (Union County Champ), underclassmen Maureen Kelly, and Shirley Salemy displayed fine talent also. Fine performances by distance runners Barbara Taylor, Janis Levine, Dana Levinson, and Kathy Rogers led the team to victory.

Top performers for the boys were high jumper and hurdler Paul Commarato (Group II Champ), middle distance runners (880) Louis Salemy, Keith Hanigan, and Glenn Etz, distance runners (mi., 2 mi.) Jeff Knowles (Capt.) Jay Bruder (Capt.) Adam Silverstein, Steven Wright, and Scott Connolly, and the help from the shot putter Danny Dommaratzky (Capt.) led the team to a successful season.

This year's Girls' Basketball team, under the coaching of Ruth Townsend, ended with a disappointing season. Although their record was unimpressive the games were very close. The team was led by Co-captains Theresa Young and Kathy Clark. Other members of the team included Linda Graziano, Lynn Murray, Debbie Brahm, Debbie Baron, Kathy Price, Linda Lees and Gina Rile.

The team's dedication and great effort was evident throughout the season. Though their season's record doesn't reveal it, this young inexperienced team gained from their losses, experience on the court produces improvement. The returning members of the team will surely display their talent and prove to be an advantage next year.

Dayton Strikes Again!

Captain Mike Steinberg goes for a strike.

The Varsity bowling team started its second year of existence since being reinstated in 1978 by capturing the Suburban Conference Championship. The team's overall record resulted in 30 wins and 6 losses. They also defeated ex-suburban conference champions, Summit, all six times they faced them this season. This year's team had the maximum five returning lettermen from last year's team: Captain Mike Steinberg — first team all conference, Barry Sherman and Stephen Klein — second team all conference, Rich Zirkel, and Michael Pine. The other members of the team also produced when it was needed this year: Tedd Nugent, Mike Suchomel, Ron Zirkel, Dan Freedman, Scott Semel, Scott Hain, Rick Popper, and Bob Southward. Captain Mike Steinberg felt that the team's experience and consistent performance was far better than last year's when the team lost the Suburban Conference Championship by a single pin, John Swedish, in his fourth year as coach of the bowling team, will lose many of his top notch seniors. He believes that there will be more bright prospects in the future. Returning next year will be freshmen Mike Suchomel, Dan Freedman, and many others.

Third Row: Daphne Kachulis, Diane Kennelly, Carol Hay, Sue Melsop, Matt Eick, Ivan Baron, Mark Dooley, Kirk Behragg, Mark Mendlin, Frank Kelly, Scott Worswick.

The Jonathan Dayton Swim Team started the winter sports season as a new sport at the high school. Under the direction of Coach Melinda Wilson, the team practiced before school each morning at the Union Boy's Club.

The team was large and enthusiastic. Although plagued by sickness and injury, most members of the team greatly improved not only their own times but also their skills as competitive swimmers.

The team placed fourth overall in the Counties and were led by such swimmers as Matt Eick, Glenn Phillippi, Scott Worswick, Charles Eick, Kirk Behragg, Frank Kelly, Kevin Drexler, Theresa Pittenger, Cheryl Pittenger, and MaryAnn Bronco.

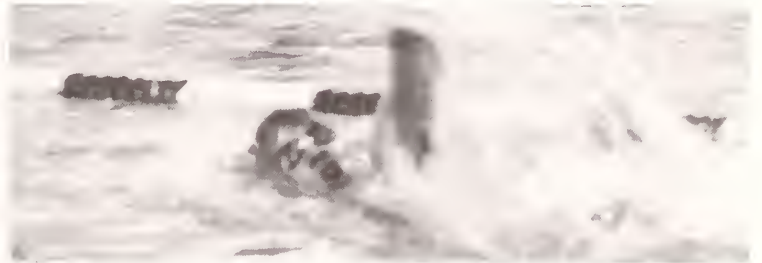

Carol Hay and Diane Kennelly dove outstandingly for the team all year, placing highly in all their competitions.

Although the team will lose many key swimmers next year, the numerous remaining swimmers along with new recruits will lead the way for a continuing swim team at J.D.

Special thanks are in order to Co-captains Charles Eick and Theresa Pittenger for spending both the time and the effort in assisting Coach Wilson.

Entering his second year as Varsity Baseball Coach, Bob Lowe will be looking to improve upon last year's 7-11 record. With only two returning lettermen; Senior Captain, Joe Policastro, and Junior, John Baumgartner, the team will be young and relatively inexperienced. However hardwork and dedication have brought the team together and results so far have been promising. The major strength will be an experienced pitching staff including Policastro, Baumgartner, Kerry Lessläuer, Kevin Karp and Adam Bain. Two other key positions involve our starting sophomores, John Sivolella at shortstop and Dave Crane behind the plate. Making up the infield will be Karp, Sivolella, Mike Baumgartner, Craig Clickenger, Scott Henkle and David Wasserman. Patrolling in the outfield will be Policastro, Don Meixner, Ira Tauber, Bill Condon and Lou Meikowitz. Policastro, Meixner and John Baumgartner will be called upon for the majority of the hitting strength. Each man has worked hard, as have our managers Laura Policastro, Nina Liberi and Donna Vargas, and the two assistant coaches, Bill Kindler and Jim Riccittelli. The winning spirit and good attitude will give us an advantage as we progress toward our goals.

The Boys' Spring Track Team is looking forward to a successful season. Last year the team finished second in both the Conference and Sectional Championships. This year captains include Jeff Knowles, Danny Dommaratsky, Harry Weiss, Anthony Circelli, Lou Salemy, Jay Bruder and Robert Irene. Jeff and Jay lead the distance runners while Lou leads the middle distance crew, Danny and Harry will power the weight team while Robert and Anthony will work with the sprinters and the pole vaulters. High jumping star Paul Commarato leads a fine crew of underclassmen including Keith Hannigan, Ed McDonald, Adam Silverstein, Steven Wright, Scott Connolly, and Robert Dooley, Senior John Alexy will be a prime performer in the hurdles. The boys are looking forward to a good deal of invitational relay meets as well as regular team competition where they are certain to fair well as in past years.

State Sectional Champs!!!

After finishing the 1979 season as State Sectional Champs, the Dayton Girls' Track Team hopes to re-capture that title and is also aiming for the Suburban Conference Championship. The team is led by captains Debbie Keller, Maria Sannino, Linda Spina, and Trish Taylor. Maria was both a Union County Champ and State Sectional Champ last season and will provide exceptional power in the weight events. Debbie is a stalwart performer in the 440 and mile relay where she runs the tough anchor leg position. Linda is returning from a fine indoor season where she captured a gold medal at the Group Meet and will provide strength in the hurdles. Trish is the returning County, Conference, and State Sectional Champ. She will perform the sprinting, and both jumping events. Juniors Kathy Kelly, Laura Clarke, and Judi Hockstein are fine athletes and will score in everything from the 100 yard dash to the hurdles to the mile run. Maureen Kelly and Shirley Salemy both young underclassmen show promise for the future. The distance events are led by Janis Levine, Barb Taylor, Kathy Rogers, and Dana Levinson. The close-knit team has gained a great deal of knowledge about sportsmanship and friendship through their many hours of practice together and hopes to live up to their expectations of success.

This year Dayton's Girls' Volleyball team is under the leadership of a new coach, Mr. Fenton. Mr. Fenton has had previous experience coaching teams and he is looking forward to a winning season this year.

The team consists of seven players returning from last year; MaryJo Scuderi and Sue Svitil; co-captains, Terri Brand, Dorothy Sullivan, Debbie Baron, Barbara Goldner and Carolyn Cupido. The rest of the team though inexperienced shows much promise for the future: Ann Raamot, Fran Resner and Melissa Zandell.

The enthusiastic players are working very hard to fortify their skills. Each day after school, practice starts with running laps, exercising and ball drills. Then, it progresses to offensive tactics, defensive tactics and game situations. Opening the season with a basic 4-2 strategy (4 spikers and 2 setters), Coach Fenton hopes that the team will gain enough experience and confidence to move into a more complex 5-1 strategy. This looks like a very promising season.

Get Into the

This years Girls' Softball team coached by Ms. Hope Valenti is looking forward to a winning season. The starting team consists of catcher, Doreen McCrosson, pitcher, Kathy Clark, shortstop Theresa Young, first base, Jodi Gassaway. Sophomore Linda Graziano is positioned at second base. The infield is completed with Debbie Brahm at third base. In the outfield, catching long range action will be Terri Scelfo in right, Suellen Heulbig in center, and Lynn Zeoli in left. Also contributing to the total team effort is Nancy Kennedy, Jill Schoenfeld, Mary Ann Branco, Kathy Price, Karen Wisnewski and Delores Scapetuolo.

The 1980 Varsity Tennis team will open this spring with experienced players and inexperienced doubles teams. Senior, Mark Dooley, will be a returning letterman at second singles and Alan Berliner looks like he will hold down the first singles slot. Third singles has Mike Pine, Jim Craner, Jack Chin and Steve Warner challenging each other. The doubles team may consist of promising freshman, Mike Berliner, and sophomore, Robert Steir. Coach Iacono is hoping to bring this team to the group State Championships for the second year in a row.

Coach Yanchus gives some pointers to Martin Swanson.

The Golf Team coming off an 11-6-1 season, is looking forward to another fine year. Three year letterman Marty Swanson became the first Dayton golfer to qualify for the State Tournament in 10 years. Marty is an All Conference selection and is hoping for another strong season. Senior Jay Davis is also a returning letterman. His consistent play will be needed if the Bulldogs are to be successful in the tough Suburban Conference play. Junior Todd Lenard will hold on to the number three spot and will contribute greatly to this year's team. Other team members who will help out are Todd Nugent, Frank Kelly and Brian Silbert.
